- I am applying for the Board of Directors as a parent of a child at EC3.
 I am applying for the Board of Directors as a representative from the community.

Please indicate why you are interested in serving on the EC3 Board of Directors.

Please list qualifications and related experience you may have and describe how those skills will contribute to the success of EC3. (Administrative, financial, fundraising, human resources, legal, sales and marketing, etc.)

Please list other current volunteer activities.

A seat on the Educational Child Care Center Board of Directors is a two year commitment. Educational Child Care Center asks that board members commit to one board meeting per month, on the third Tuesday of every month. Board members are also responsible for overseeing working committees, and will need to meet occasionally with their committees or spend volunteer time managing committee tasks, as well as commit to occasional special events (fundraising auction, etc.)

By signing below, you signify that you are able to meet these commitments.
